Rayman Legends Pc Crack GameQ: How to access the error that triggered a method in Ruby on Rails? I'm using the postmark gem to send emails from my app. I understand that postmark#send uses rescue_from to catch any exceptions when sending the email, and it is alright because I didn't need to handle this situation with my code. What I don't know is how to access the errors that triggered the rescue_from in the view. What I need is to access the email's body and the Error message, but I need to know how to get them as I'm trying but it doesn't work. I use the gem with this code: @contact = Contact.last @email = ContactMailer.contact_email(@contact).deliver_now if @email.deliver_redirect_to_root_path else redirect_to contacts_path, notice: "An error ocurre has delivered the mail. Please retry later" end And
