Download this product Buy Now Simplistic user interface that could be improved in certain respects Whenever you wish to access the two included tools, you need to start the main application and navigate through the launch window to find the relevant buttons. The operation is not too time-consuming, but it would have been better if the utilities could be accessed directly.

Unfortunately, the program's user interface is far from impressive, and it could certainly do with an upgrade. Handy application that enables you to create a signup form While you can use any popup page that is already available, the program can also help you create a new one from scratch. All you need to do is fill out a series of fields, customize the color theme and insert the required HTML code. Once everything is ready, you can export the page to an HTML file. Add exit popups to your own web pages Once you have created your signup form, you can easily attach it to your web pages using a simple, intuitive tool. The application allows you to customize the width, height and opacity of the popup, and it then adds the JavaScript code to the web page when you click the Update button.
