ExcelToPdf is a PHP class that can export a given file to PDF format. Source Code: The project consists of two parts; the pre-compilation of external libraries and the PHP class itself. An external pre-compiled version of 2PDF library is included, which includes the PDF generation and conversion to PDF. This library was provided by the author himself. Download and unzip both archive files The most relevant file is the ExcelToPdf.php file, which contains the PHP class as well as the methods used to generate the PDF file. Generate a PDF file Download and unzip the two files The ExcelToPdf.php file contains the core class, let's start by generating a PDF file, ExcelToPdf::makePdf($excelFile); Let's take a look at the method makePdf($excelFile); $excelFile should contain the path of the spreadsheet in question. ExcelToPdf::makePdf($excelFile); ExcelToPdf::makePdf is the method that starts the process of generating the PDF file. To achieve this, it is necessary to create the sheet and then insert the data so that it can be exported to PDF. This is accomplished through the use of a few methods that allow the conversion and export of the spreadsheet: $excelSheet = ExcelToPdf::open($excelFile) -> setSheetTitle('Your sheet name') -> setSheetNumColumns(5) -> setSheetNumRows(100) -> setLeftMargin(50) -> setRightMargin(100); ExcelToPdf::open($excelFile) -> setSheetTitle('Your sheet name') -> setSheetNumColumns(5) -> setSheetNumRows(100)

As you walk about the house, you almost certainly hear them in the distance. Their song is a rasping hum, slightly like that of the electric toothbrush. And the song gets faster. Sometimes faster than the toothbrush. And if you're very clever or if you tap your fingernails on a window frame, you can make them sing in harmony. Those rhythmic, musical chirps are the worms. The house worms. A family of worms is their name, almost an imperative on a

General Notes: This is not the actual map. You can also visit. This is a 64K map. All the buildings and the city are about 15000 polygons. The map is not similar to others cities maps. But is the same as Bercy (Paris) -but in a city style, closer to a construction. The map is more than a game map because you can do things, like you visit another store, a motel, a restaurant etc. It's just that the
