What I did to do that is class Page2 : ContentPage { public Page2 () { Title = "Page2"; var container = new Container(Color.DarkSlateBlue); var layout = new Grid(); var button = new Button { Text = "hello", WidthRequest = 200 }; container.Children.Add(button, 0, 0); layout.Children.Add(container, 1, 0); // content = layout; Content = layout; } } this works fine but I am getting the below error. Cannot convert method group 'Children' to non-delegate type 'IEnumerable <object>' What's wrong with the code? A: It is not possible to cast the property in the ContentPage to IEnumerable so instead you can use following. var button = new Button { Text = "hello", WidthRequest = 200 }; var container = new StackLayout { Children = { button } }; container.Children.Add(container); and this will work fine Mitt Romney adviser tells Reuters his candidate would have beat President Barack Obama in the 2012 election, given technology By Maggie Shiels SEATTLE, July 12 (
